A LOOK AT THE LIGHTER SIDE OF INDIANA ADVERTISING

EVER NOTICE HOW WHEN YOU WATCH TV, THAT THE OTHER ITEMS IN THE ROOM JUST DISAPPEAR? THE SAME HAPPENS WHEN YOU HOLD THIS MAGAZINE... EVEN A SMALL AD GRABS YOUR ATTENTION.
I realize that some may think that the cover is a bit premature—that is, making a big deal out of pre-season football; but look at it this way, this town seems to have an obsession with flat-screen TVs wherever you go. So we might as well watch the sport that is responsible for those gard-darg things becoming so ubiquitous. Besides, there are 13 (count ‘em) televised football games in August.

Yo yinz, what’s more Western Pennsylvania than watching the Steelers play while partaking in the ritualistic consumption of food ‘n’ drink in front of a flashing rectangular device wearing full team regalia?

Of course, the university also gets back up and running full steam this month... Moving in to those new apartment units is going to create hunger and thirst... New businesses and old businesses will be working hard to gain new customers or hold on to last year’s... You know, just the typical fall insanity in Indiana...

The weather’s still nice, the cafés are still open, and a lot of co-eds will be showing off their tans. —I knew there was some reason I stayed here.

Finally, in keeping with our plan to tweak and/or add new stuff each month, check out our classifieds, improved calendar, page layouts and TV listings.

AUGUST continues to please couch potatoes and mobile device squinters alike... Apart from the return of NFL Football (see pre-season games listed on the calendar), there are the specials: Teen Choice Awards airs at 8 p.m. on FOX on Saturday the 11th; and MTV’s Video Music Awards dragging on Sunday the 25th... AMC is the cable channel to watch this month with the return of Hell on Wheels, Saturday the 10th at 9 p.m., and the final season of Breaking Bad beginning the following night. There’s also Low Winter Sun, which delves into the Detroit underground—where the line between cops and criminals is blurred—premiering at 10 p.m. also on the 11th, and it’s followed by Talking Bad... A new series, Owner’s Manual, for the mechanically inclined, begins on the 15th, which is followed by the return of The Pitch… SyFy brings back Face Off on the 27th at 9 p.m. followed by Cosworld, a new reality series about the competitive world of costume play at 10… BBC America’s Broadchurch starts on Wednesday the 7th—it’s a bit like The Killing … And of course, America’s Next Top Model is back on CW at 8 p.m. on Fridays… Seth Meyers is launching a new animation this month, The Awesomes, about a bunch of semi-superheroes. The show will be on Hulu… See listings below for the usual programs, and remember weekly updates appear on 157LIVE.com

facebook: The Coney  foursquare  Banquets/Parties
I always tell people that when it comes to having a good time at some places, don’t rely on the owners or managers to create the party atmosphere. More often than not, you just have to take over the place with your friends. Granted, you shouldn’t have to (that’s what hospitality is for); but sometimes you just do.

Anyway, the easiest (and cheapest) way to orchestrate your own tailgate party is at a Wing Night on either Monday or Thursday (see calendar on page 16 for where and when). You can have a blast at most Indiana restaurant/bars on either of these days—plus, they also coincide with game nights. However, that won’t work on a Sunday, Friday or College Football Saturday. There, you have to make a choice based on who you want to hang with, how you want to sit, and what you want to eat and drink.

Just outside of town, both the Rose Inn and Pikel’s are bona fide game destinations.

If you want an experience reminiscent of a bunch of fraternity brothers huddled together in the den watching a game, then Grubs is the place. If you’ve been there you know, if you haven’t, go.

If you prefer a little more elbow room and rather sit on a bar stool to watch TV; and, you’d like to gorge yourself on one of those thick bread and french fry sandwiches, your best bet is Twisted Jimmy's/Steel City Samiches. And yes, they have a lot of craft beers.

Alternately, if you want a genuine tailgate buffet, and to be surrounded by Steeler fanatics, the Ironwood Grill usually puts out a spread for afternoon or early evening games—but check their site. Their Tiki Bar also has a TV.

If it’s a night game and it falls on any day other than Sunday; and you feel like being under the stars, you can catch the game-action at Benjamin's patio bar.

Electronc Cigs

By now you’ve probably seen that TV commercial for blu eCigs, “we’re all adults here…” Basically an electronic cigarette simulates the smoking experience using vapor rather than smoke. And, while some places might frown upon anyone holding something that even looks like a cig, the smoke is an illusion—likewise there is no ash.

We’ve tested blu and found it to satisfy the needs of habitual smokers. Bars and restaurants should welcome them as an alternative to cigarettes.

Other places to visit are: Al Patti’s—an intimate place for true sports fans (and steaks). Boomies—a big space for watching with a jukebox soundtrack (hot dogs, apps & smokes); likewise, The Coney (front, back, smoking or non); Spaghetti Bender’s lounge (pasta & seafood.); and the revamped Strike Zone.

You get the picture… Take over a place and root away.

UFOs, Wall Street and Time Travel

Apparently some recently declassified documents make a strong argument that UFOs are real. And this “proof” has been backed by former astronauts, pilots, police officers and the military. That said, what’s up with that? And why the cover up? Either the government is working with the aliens; or, they’re not aliens at all, rather time-travelers from our future. But who could pull off time-travel from both a financial and security standpoint. Not the government, but Wall Street. This explains how they keep pulling rabbits out of their hats on a economy that should have tanked years ago.

“A fine beer may be judged with only one sip, but it’s better to be thoroughly sure.”

Available only by the bottle, it is recommended served over ice and with a slice of lemon or lime. Crabbie’s can be found at Grub’s and the Ironwood Grill, as well as local six-pack shops.

EXTRAS…

How to make a Dark & Stormy

Ingredients: 2 ounces of your favorite dark rum; 3 ounces of Crabbies Ginger Beer; 1/2 ounce lime juice

Instructions: Combine rum, ginger beer, and the lime juice (optional), into a Collins glass filled with ice cubes. Stir.

You might also try Crabbies in a Moscow Mule—that’s vodka, lime juice and sugar and a mint sprig served in a copper mug.

*How to make Crabbies (from the movie): combine 6 oz. canned crab meat, jar of cheese spread (usually Kraft Old English Cheese), 1 stick butter, 1 tablespoon of mayo, 1/2 tsp. garlic powder and a dash of your preferred hot sauce. Spread mixture over 6 English muffin halves. Bake 10-15 minutes at 425°. Can be cut into quarters before or after baking.
